Campbell, President and Manager of the Wainwright Gas Co., Ltd., wrote Mayor Middlemass, enclosing a summary of the matters discussed with council on his recent visit to Wainwright and, on motion by Councillor Cork, his communication and summary were ordered filed pending further information or findings pertaining to conditions affecting the natural gas supply.

Councillor Tory then submitted a motion seeking the introduction of a by-law concerning the sale of Lot 2 in Block 20, Plan 6445 V, Wainwright, Alberta, and after considerable discussion of the proposed motion, Councillor Tory introduced a motion that he be allowed to withdraw his previous motion and that the secretary-treasurer return the cheque for $400 accompanying the offer to purchase this lot which latter motion carried on a majority vote with Mayor Middlemass and Councillor Lismore recording their votes as opposed to the adoption of the said motion.

On motion by Councillor Tory, council granted its assent to the introduction of a by-law providing for the appointment of a Returning Officer for the purpose of conducting an election of a member of the Board of the Wainwright Municipal Hospital District No. 17 from that portion of the said hospital district, lying within the corporate limits of the Town of Wainwright.

By-law Number 204 was then introduced and was given its first and second readings on motions by Councillors Lismore and Cork respectively.

On motion, Council was regularly adjourned.

BOARD OF TRADE MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting is to be held in the Council Chamber of the Town Hall on Wednesday, evening next at EIGHT O'CLOCK SHARP, and it is hoped that a big turn-out of all interested will be on hand, as very important business is to be dealt with.

By Order

GERALD NOXON

Gerald Noxon, who is of United Empire Loyalist parentage, was born in Toronto. He obtained his education in England and France, worked on documentary films in Britain, and when he returned to Canada produced the first entirely French film. Since that time he has studied free lance journalism in Washington. His first major series for the CBC was "They Fly For Freedom", and shortly after that followed the "Our Canada" series.

Ask Four Billion For War Needs

OTTAWA—The government will ask parliament for an appropriation of $3,800,000,000 for war purposes during the fiscal year 1943-44, it was disclosed when Finance Minister Duggan gave notice of a resolution preliminary to the introduction of the war appropriations bill.

The appropriation, which is apart from the $1,000,000,000 appropriation to be made for aid to other United Nations, exceeds appropriations for the present year by more than $1,000,000,000.

Last session the main war appropriations bill was for $2,000,000,000 and parliament passed a supplementary bill for $558,000,000 to meet expenditures over and above those authorized in the main bill up to the end of the present fiscal year, next March 31.

Big Success of Red Cross Dance

Judging from the standpoint of enthusiasm, and the number of dancers who attended the Red Cross old-time dance in the S.S. hall on Friday evening last the event may well be classed as the "event of the season."

A real old-time orchestra (the Ford Veltch-Gidora aggregation) furnished the music for both old-time and modern numbers on the dance programme, and young and old alike thoroughly enjoyed such offerings as two-steps, three-steps, heel and toe polkas, quadrilles, etc., and the musicians were certainly not stingy with their demands for encores, either.

In spite of the fact that the dance floor was crowded beyond capacity, everyone took their share of the bumps, and came back for more at the next dance.

A great deal of praise is due the orchestra—not alone for the fine type of music furnished—for it was through their offer of playing without cost that the local Red Cross branch were able to put on the affair.

Those playing were:—J. C. Ford, J. Veltch, P. Gidora, Violet Gidora, John Ford, and others, and Joe Demoreau in his capacity of M.C. and "caller-off" was all that could be desired.

The members of the Red Cross executive all express their great appreciation to all concerned in this effort by which the tidy net sum of $147.24 has been added to the funds of the local branch in so worthy a cause.

Jas. Wilkinson Dies After Long Illness

It is our sad duty this week to chronicle the death of Mr. James Wilkinson, who passed away on Sunday, February 14th, at the age of 62 years.

The deceased gentleman, who has been suffering from a lengthy illness, was taken to the hospital a couple of weeks prior to his death, but despite every effort to prolong his life, the dread hand of death could not be stayed.

He came from County Down, Ireland, some 17 years ago, and has since farmed in the Sheepshead Flats district, and finally moved his family to Wainwright during the present winter.

Left to mourn a loving husband and father are his wife, as well as two sons (William James, with the Canadian forces in England, and Robert with the armed forces at Vancouver), and four daughters (Mrs. Margaret, Mary, of Edmonton, and Margaret, Annie and Gertrude, at home) to all of whom the sympathies of a large circle of friends is extended.

With arrangements in the hands of McLeod's funeral parlors, the funeral was held on Wednesday afternoon, February 17th, at St. Andrew's (Pres.) church, with Rev. L. Wilson conducting the service. A large crowd of sympathizers and friends testified to the respect and esteem in which he was held. Interment was at the Wainwright cemetery.

Palbearers were Messrs. A. Rasmussen, E. Rasmussen, G. Nockes, N. McTurk, F. Lowe and T. Mitchell. Floral tributes of love and sympathy were from: The Family; The Malcolm Family; Beila, Jim and Pamela; Sam, Ted and Family; Verna, Alvin and Darleen Johnson; Earl Bobb; Mr. and Mrs. F. Lowe and Family; Mr. and Mrs. McTurk and Family; Mr. and Mrs. A. Rasmussen; Mr. and Mrs. E. Rasmussen; Mr. and Mrs. Barker and Staff; Florence Myers; Mr. and Mrs. H. McCrystal; Mr. and Mrs. D. Gardner and Family; Mr. and Mrs. K. Shaban; Mr. and Mrs. F. Shaban.

Celebrate Nat. C.G.I.T. Week at Supper Party

The Explorer Group of United S.S. had a supper party at the home of Mrs. Richard on Saturday, February 13th, and on February 20th the C.G.I.T. group of the same school celebrated National C.G.I.T. week with a supper party at the Paragon. The amount collected by the Ladies Group for the provincial finance campaign was $19.51. Thanks are extended to all who so kindly contributed to this fund for Girls' and Boys' work in this province.

Change in Liquor Law Cuts Rations

What is shown to be the most stringent liquor regulations in Canada are now in effect in Alberta following new instructions to liquor vendors issued on Saturday last.

The new restrictions limit permit-holders of the province to 26 ounces of hard liquor for each calendar month. A single exception to this rule is that a permit-holder may buy one 40-ounce bottle of hard liquor a month, as long as the present 40-ounce stocks last.

A permittee may buy two "mikeys", 12 or 13-ounce sizes, at one time, under the new rules. But if he only buys one bottle of the small size, he must wait until the following month for further purchases.

In the case of wine, purchases are limited to two bottles any size a month. Not more than one purchase per month is permitted, however.

Sales of wine in gallon jugs will be discontinued when the present supply has been sold. Until they are sold out, vendors may sell a permittee one gallon jug a month. Such a purchase would preclude a permittee from purchasing any bottled wine in that month.

Permit-holders who have already bought wine and liquor in February, may not purchase more until March 1st.

No change has been made in the purchase limits of beer. Quantities which may be bought are a dozen pints a week, or a half-dozen quarts.

Sales of draught beer will be discontinued as soon as the present stocks are sold out, the regulations state.

Liquor stores will be open in rural areas from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., it was announced.

Someone is sure going to get that beautiful little Shetland Pony! Will it be YOU? Better look into this and help the War Charities!

Local W.I. Seek Increase in Numbers

The regular monthly meeting of the Wainwright Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. H. Smart with 13 members and 2 visitors present. Roll call was answered by a Valentine verse, a quilt block, and a donation for the ditty bags.

Three quilts had been made and tied since last meeting. Wool purchased for knitting for the Merchant Marine and a War Savings Certificate purchased. A Whist drive was planned, date to be announced later.

Next meeting to be held March 11, at the home of Mrs. Stintner. Roll call—Irish Joke. Hostesses to be Mrs. Torrence and Mrs. Croteau.

The gift donated by Mrs. Carsell was won by Mrs. Clark.

Members and anyone outside of W.I. who would like to give donations of articles or money for the ditty bags please leave same with Mrs. Carsell, the president, or Mrs. Brunner, treasurer.

Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Donaldson were hostesses, and served a real war time lunch.

Members are asked to bring visitors who will join our W.I. —M.B.

Provide Market For All Dairy Butter

OTTAWA, Feb. 20.—(CP)—The prices board issued an order, effective March 1, which will provide dairy farmers throughout Canada with a market for all the dairy butter they produce. The order authorizes wholesalers and retailers to take "any amount" of farm butter offered to them at definitely prescribed prices.

The board's announcement said farmers who formerly were unable to dispose of their butter on the market now may dispose of their surplus through their local storekeepers or wholesalers. If the storekeepers or wholesalers propose to sell the butter to their customers in normal course of trade, they will surrender the usual ration coupons.

Slight Change Made R.C.A.F. Training Plans

A slight change has been made in the plans for the War Emergency Training Plan Stenography Course recently announced by the R.C.A.F. (Women's Division). The course, which offers young women five months' training in shorthand, typing and Business English will start in Edmonton early in April. It is now planned, however, to send the trainees to No. 7 Manning Depot, Rockcliffe, Ontario, for four weeks Basic Training first. They will then return to Edmonton, in uniform, for the course.

This means that those who are interested will have to apply soon, as the class is limited to thirty.

CARD OF THANKS

For the expression of the confidence placed in me by the citizens in returning me to the Mayoralty for the next two years at the recent elections, I wish to say a sincere "Thank You" and to assure you that I shall continue to work for the best interests of the Town and its citizens as I have always done in the past.

J. G. MIDDLEMASS, Mayor.

Red Cross Must Have 10 Million

The Red Cross Drive which starts on March first must raise throughout Canada a minimum of ten million dollars if this important and necessary work is to be carried on.

The public should understand that the Canadian Red Cross must supply the government with an audited statement each year, and a digest of this report is available to everyone in one of the circulars distributed during the drive.

Even a casual glance at this statement will show that the cost of administration is remarkably small, especially in view of the amount of work done. This, of course, is only possible because of the fact that thousands of women throughout Canada give their time and energies constantly without pay and without grudge.

Out of an estimated expenditure of $11,750,000 only $350,000 goes for administration, $5,000,000.00 goes to Canadian and British war prisoners in Europe and $600,000.00 to Canadian war prisoners in the Far East. Similar amounts, as the statement shows, are collected for other war measures, but besides the necessities of war the Red Cross must still stand ready to take care of its normal peacetime activities such as disasters which may be visited upon the people in one form or another in spite of the war.

The people in every community in Canada must be prepared to take their proper place in this drive for funds.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends and neighbors for their assistance and sympathy in our recent sad bereavement, and to the doctor, matron and staff of the hospital. And also to those who sent floral tokens of esteem and letters of condolence.

MRS. J. WILKINSON & FAMILY.

$5,000,000 Given In Alta. Wheat Payments

Out of 50,000 claims received for 1942, total of 48,000 Alberta farmers have been paid more than $5,000,000 by the Wheat Acreage Reduction Plan, W. C. Barrie, superintendent for Alberta stated Saturday.

In many of the municipal districts farmers are now paid in full for 1942 wheat acreage reduction bonus. Those claims which have not as yet been passed have been rechecked for verification, and discrepancies, and cannot be adjusted without personal contact with the farmer and the field man.

Late claims have also been filed and cannot be adjusted and inspected until road conditions improve, he stated.

STICK TO YOUR WAR SAVINGS CERTIFICATES

No better interest rates are paid on any Canadian war financing securities than on War Savings Certificates. If you hold them until full maturity.

They are meant to be held, not called. Canada promised that it would cash the certificates under certain circumstances, but this was done to avoid hardship in special cases, not because cashing a Certificate before maturity was anything but bad for the owner and bad for Canada.

That promise will be kept of course, as Dominion of Canada financial obligations have always been kept—to the letter. But too many thoughtless owners of War Savings Certificates are asking Canada to give them back their cash now—without any good reason, except that they want to spend the money—and at a time when the money is badly wanted to fight the Battle of Freedom.

Every person who buys a Certificate does a patriotic action, and at the same time gets himself a good investment and a cushion against post-war hard times.

Every person who cashes in a Certificate unnecessarily, does an unpatriotic action, cheats himself of part of its value, and weakens the shock absorber which may save him from nasty post-war bumps.

The Certificates for which you paid $4. now, is worth $5. If you keep it to maturity, if you cash it in after six months you only get $4. for it.
Net loss of $1!

And actually you lose more than that, because by spending your $4. at present high prices you get less value per dollar than you will when prices are back to normal.

Farmers have learned all about the difference in the purchasing power of money, by painful experience! That is one reason why they are among the least offenders in this matter. The group which shares this honor with farmers is the financial group—the men who each year buy the maximum amount of War Savings Certificates allowed by the regulations.

The financiers to whom one-tenth of one percent means a lot of money,
—who understand the exact value of money and interest in terms of what it is really worth, hang on to their

War Savings Certificates like grim death! It is the best paying thing they can find in Canadian war investments. It is so good in fact that in order to prevent them buying huge amounts of War Savings Certificates instead of Victory Bonds, the Government limits their purchases to $450 per head, per year.

WHAT IS WORTHWHILE?

One of the many tasks of any newspaper is to record the passing of the members of the community which it serves. It is something that is seldom contemplated by most subscribers, nevertheless, the one who continually takes down the particulars and writes the account, cannot help forming certain attitudes and ideas, and wondering who will be next.

While we would never attempt the impossible task of defining what is worthwhile, yet we cannot help forming some opinions. At least, one aspect of the proposition, which is continually imprinted upon our minds, is service. Within many of the records of the mortals who have now passed into the great beyond is the story of compassion for their fellow man, and a fear of their God. Whether of high or low estate, their kindly deeds are as apparent as the day, and their memory revered by the whole community.

Unquestionably, some people live a life of selfishness, while others continually sacrifice themselves for the welfare of others—nothing is more obvious to a newspaper when the last story of life has been written. Which life was worthwhile is a question that everyone must answer for themselves. Needless to say, as far as a newspaper is concerned, there is a compensating pleasure, mingled with a high sense of duty and respect, in recording the passing of those who have lived their lives unselfishly.

NOTES

the Executive of the Wainwright & District branch will be held in the Red Cross Room, on Monday, March 1st, at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is requested.

The 1943 National Red Cross Campaign begins March 1st, lasting all month. We are entering a critical phase of the war, and one in which our own Canadian boys will be increasingly involved. Would you like them to serve in a war where there was no Red Cross? The Red Cross is YOUR representative on all fronts.
There's a service unselfishly given by those who care to those who need.
When called on for a donation remember that you are putting into the hands of the Red Cross your own personal gift of mercy. Count it a real privilege to give. It is those who give who truly live!

The local Executive would appreciate it if any from the outside districts who are willing to canvass would get in touch with Mr. G. Graham, who is in charge of the canvas in the country districts.

Mrs. Labiane has donated a quilt to the Red Cross which will later be put up for sale. She was assisted in the quilting by Mrs. F. Watts, Mrs.
F. Church, Mrs. F. Dixon, and Mrs.
L. C. McArthur. Our thanks ladies!

The Gerald Victory Club has donated a quilt for the A13 to Russia campaign, the total cash donations which amounted to $618.75, and two large boxes of clothing, have been shipped through the local Red Cross.
The Heath Community Club are putting on their play in aid of the Red Cross on March 5th, in the Separate School Auditorium. See Advertisement in this issue.

The So-and-Sew club of Fabyan are giving a series of card parties weekly in their homes to raise funds for the Red Cross campaign.

A card party and dance will be given in the Flaxtonville school by the Girl Edge ladies on February 26, proceeds for the Red Cross.

Please remember that any one putting on any event and using the Red Cross name must first obtain a permit from the local branch. Apply to either the President, Mrs. Hannah, or the Secretary, Mrs. Washburn.

enjoyed and very successful financially. You will find a write-up in this

ATTENTION APPRECIATED

R.C.A.F. Overseas
January 11, 1943.

Mrs. L. Smith, sec., War Service League.

Today I was more than grateful to receive your package of "Sweet Cape". You can't really imagine what it is like to be entirely without a Canadian cigarette over here. When we have them everything is O.K., but somehow we don't get used to English brands. Seems funny, but it's a fact!
I want to thank you all very much indeed for remembering me. It is surely fully appreciated. Although we are kept busy, and sometimes things seem tough, it makes things so much more cheerful when we are continually remembered by you at home. It is truly a wonderful effort of you all,

and it brings big smiles when we see
"Wainwright War Service League"
on a parcel for we know the goodies with which it will be stuffed!

The box received was shared by six pals, and so didn't last very long;
but it was a welcome treat.

We actually had half-an-inch of

CANADIANS CHASED ROMMEL

These two Canadian airmen were among the fighting fliers of the United Nations who helped light the fuse that exploded Hitler's pie-dream. They were part of a bomber crew which flew with the air forces, keeping Rommel's Afrika Korps in frantic retreat. Advance Canadian personnel have arrived in North Africa for special training. The National Film Board's latest film in the

CANADA CARRIES ON series, "PIN-CERS ON AXIS EUROPE," gives a full report of the North Africa operation, from the landing of the vast United Nations force to the race across the desert after Rommel's fleeing army. Importance of the move to the United Nations offensive, in its relationship to the struggle on the Russian front is dramatically presented.

C.P.R. FORCES WIN BATTLE OF ELEMENTS

Huge snowdrifts lining the Canadian Pacific Railway's right-of-way from one end of Canada to the other stood as victorious monuments to the company's courageous maintenance forces, train crews and other ranks, who for the better part of a month battled one of the most sustained and severe blizzards that ever played havoc with Canadian transportation. And they kept the lines clear.

The storm attacked the company's transportation facilities with blitz-like fury, piling tons of snow over its vital steel highways, sheathing its telegraph wires with ice to the thickness of a man's wrist, snapping poles, and hurling an icy challenge to Canadian Pacific forces who literally "dared Nature to do its worst."

The situation would have been bad enough under normal traffic conditions. The Canadian Pacific, however, was engaged in handling the heaviest volume of traffic in its history—more than double the amount carried by the railway in 1939. This, coupled with limitations on manpower, placed an additional burden on the company's resources.

GENERAL ORDER

The Dominion Bureau of Statistics has found that the cost of living index number for January 2, 1943, is 117.1 (adjusted index 116.2) as compared with the cost of living index number for July 2, 1942, of 117.9 (adjusted index 117).

The Wartime Wages Control Order, P. C. 5963, provides in Section 48 (iv):

"The amount of the bonus shall not be changed unless the cost of living index number has changed one whole point or more since the last general order of the Board requiring an increase or decrease in the amount thereof."

The index number not having changed by one whole point or more since July 2, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of P. C. 5963 as stated, the National War Labour Board orders that the terms of its General Order dated August 4, 1942, shall continue to apply for the period February 15, 1943, to May 15, 1943, subject to the right of employers or employees to apply to a War Labour Board for authorization of payment of such an amount of cost of living bonus as a Board may determine to be "fair and reasonable," under the provisions of the Order.

FARM NOTES

GREEN FEED AS A SOURCE OF VITAMINS FOR POULTRY

Fresh green leafy material contains some of the vitamins that are essential to good health and that are likely to be deficient in poultry rations made up of grains and ordinary protein supplements. These vitamins can be preserved by drying the leafy material rapidly, for feeding poultry that are confined to the laying house, says L. Greisbach, Dominion Experimental Station, Fredericton, N.B. Dehydrated feeds gradually lose their vitamin A potency so fresh supplies should be obtained each fall.

Grains and mill feeds are low in the vitamin necessary in relatively large amounts in brooder mash to get good hatchability. Feeds common to poultry rations are dehydrated alfalfa and cereal grass, dried skim milk and dried buttermilk. Fish meal and meat meal are only fair sources of this vitamin. Milk products are not now available for general use in poultry rations so special attention should be paid to the quality of green feed in the ration.

In a test at the Dominion Experimental Station, Fredericton, N.B., dehydrated cereal grass, when making up four percent of the hatching mash was equal to dehydrated alfalfa at the rate of eight percent of the mash. In another test, the cereal grass was superior to alfalfa for hatchability, but egg production was equally good in both lots. There is some indication that when alfalfa meal makes up more than two percent of the baby chick ration, growth may be slightly retarded, possibly due to the chick's limited ability to handle feeds high in fibre. However, alfalfa meal has been fed up to twelve percent of the laying mash without reducing the efficiency of the ration for egg production. Under some conditions dehydrated green feeds can be fed, in even larger proportions in the laying mash than has been the custom, with beneficial results.

EXPERIENCE WITH PHENOTHIAZINE FOR PIGS

Phenothiazine has been recently advocated as a convenient and fairly effective treatment for round worms in pigs and as a specific for nodular worms, but care should be exercised when administering it to white-skinned pigs, says C. H. Anderson, Dominion Experimental Station, Beaverlodge, Alberta.

Several cases of solar eczema in Yorkshire pigs exposed to strong sunlight, especially after a second treatment with this vermicide, developed painful skin eruptions over the back and rump. In one case the ears turned red and crimped at the edges, and in some cases slight incoordination of the hind-quarters was observed. These symptoms being reported to the Division of Animal Pathology.

Science Service, Dominion Department of Agriculture and the Institute of Parasitology, Macdonald College, Quebec, an experiment was undertaken at the Institute of Parasitology to test the theory of photosensitization, which is already known to have occurred in man and in white-faced sheep, though the Beaverlodge experience was the first officially reported in Canada with hogs. The results were confirmatory.

The trouble may exhibit itself first in a reddening of the ears, after which the pig takes on a sunburnt appearance, with serious exudate. In more severe cases the patients may depress their backs as though going under a barbed-wire fence or may roll or exhibit peculiar contortions. Some of the animals treated a second time at Beaverlodge did not return to normal condition for 10 days after treatment.

A joint article by Swales, Albright, Fraser and Muir concludes by stating:

"1. Pigs treated with Phenothiazine should be protected from bright sunlight for at least three days following treatment.

2. Since Phenothiazine is not efficient for removing immature Ascaris it should not be given to pigs of less than 70 days of age."

GERMINATION OF OATS

A number of seed growers and farmers whose growing crops were affected by a touch of frost last fall have been disconcerted to find that their plump bright oats are germinating very low.

Under these circumstances it would be wise for those farmers who have a suspicion that frost touched their fields to make certain about the germination of the oats they intend to sow, and not to judge them only by appearance, or even by cutting them open, as usually can be done when frost is suspected.

The Dominion Plant Products Division at Calgary, Saskatoon or Winnipeg will make a thorough and reliable test for germination and vitality for the small charge of only fifty cents. It is necessary to mail a four ounce sample to the Plant Products Division for the test.

Farmers themselves can easily make tests for germination. Next week in this column I will give the details of how simple home germinators can easily and quickly be constructed and operated by any farmer.

So far only trouble with oats has been reported. It might be just as well, therefore, I suggest, for farmers in areas which received a touch of frost to make a home test on their barley and wheat.

News of Your Army

By a C.W.A.C. Volunteer

BEHIND THE MAN

Shoulder to shoulder—and in step with the men of Canada—you find today the women of our country—carrying their share of the duties of a soldier. The Canadian Women's Army Corps is as much a part of Canada's great active army as is the artillery, the ordnance corps, the service corps and other branches.

Truly it can be said that the woman in khaki is the "Girl Behind the Gun". Every woman who volunteers today and is accepted into our corps is very definitely replacing in an army job some able-bodied man who can then be used for more active and strenuous duty.

We have gone past the time when we can afford to be satisfied with trying to interest ladies in joining our ranks by talking about:

Our very, very nice and smart uniform.

Our cap and collar badges that get to mean so much to us.

About the good pay, the quarters, the rations and the clothing—we have for some time pointed out that with the free medical, dental, eyesight, attention, plus clothing, quarters and pay, the average girl would be drawing as much, and more, than she does in civilian life.

About the opportunity to travel free and see the world, because enlistment in the C.W.A.C. means service anywhere.

No, these are the pleasant, coaxing appeals. They are nice to talk about but I am convinced that the majority of our Canadian women are not going to offer their services because of a nice uniform, good pay, and such. No, they are going to join the C.W.A.C. when they are convinced that they are needed.

Do you know that prior to the formation of the Canadian Women's Army Corps, men—big, strong, able-bodied men, of a type that could strike fear into the heart (if he has one) of the enemy—were being held to perform jobs in offices, in depots, in training centres. Why? Because those jobs were essential and had to be done.

It's a different story today. What do we find? Girls in cook houses preparing meals for the men—cleaning the silverware—polishing floors. Girls assisting our nursing sisters in the hospitals, girls in garages working in and repairing motorcycles, motor cars, trucks, Bren Gun carriers and other military vehicles.

Girls riding motorcycles—dispatch riders as they are known in the army. Girls driving cars, trucks and super-trucks.

Girls in unit orderly rooms, keeping records, filling out reports and filing documents.

Girls working at typewriters, turning out, in all probability, more work than that particular typewriter has for two years.

Girls displaying N.C.O. ranks. Others with their officer ratings on their shoulder straps. The officers are doctors, administrators or training officers.

This could go on indefinitely.

In closing let me say we're proud to be known as the girls behind the men behind the guns!

1943 OBJECTIVES AND FARM LABOUR

No doubt prairie farmers resolved, on January 1st, to meet the farm production objectives made public by the government a few weeks ago. Some of the increases for 1943 over 1942 are: oats, 12%; barley 11%; flax, 69%; alfalfa, 17%; cattle, 9%; hogs, 28%; sheep, 12%; eggs, 29%; creamery butter, 15%; powdered milk, 41% (decreased condensed milk, 27%).

In 1942, farmers responded nobly to demands for food products. Can they meet the 1943 requirements? That they will try, no one doubts.

Certainly the increases in food products outlined above are urgently needed; but let us not be over-optimistic. Last year, pasture and feed crops were abundant as never before. Last year, besides supplying enormous quantities of food, the prairie farmers released thousands of their ablest men, to the armed forces, and to war industries in cities. Next year may be dry, and next year farm labour will be far more scarce.

It is useless simply to hide our heads in the sand or to look for miracles. Failure to meet the 1943 production objectives might be extremely serious, but is the probable outcome if a definite plan to meet farm labour problems is not undertaken very soon. Either the supply of farm workers must be increased or the workers must be redistributed in some way so that farmers are not obliged to reduce cattle, dairy cows, hogs and poultry.

At present it looks as though the problem is just dumped in the farmer's lap. Farmers are entitled to expect government guidance and to expect it soon.

British scientists who have been engaged in experiment at the Low Temperature Research Station, Cambridge, England, report that they have worked out a technique for drying vegetables whereby they retain not only their taste and color but their nutritive value.

The great merit of dried vegetables is their easier transportability. They enable men in the front line in Egypt to enjoy British potatoes, carrots and cabbage just as palatable and nutritious as when eaten at home. Indeed, it is claimed that they are more nutritious, for the utmost care is taken that they retain their minerals. Potatoes are peeled by machine and have blemishes and "eyes" removed. After washing they are shredded by a machine to small chips. They are then blanched by two minutes in boiling water and sudden cooling. Then they are dried in a tunnel heated by steam. They are packed in tins from which all air is expelled and replaced by nitrogen.

The great compression achieved by drying is shown by the fact that the same shipping space will carry eight times as much potato, twenty times as much carrot, and twenty to thirty times as much cabbage as it will when these vegetables are in a fresh condition.

The new process differs from drying fruit in the sun in that the essential nutritive elements are retained, and reconstitution with boiling water and cooking produces vegetables which look and taste as good as the fresh variety.

Headquarters of the Health League of Canada announce that Wednesday, February 2nd, was observed in the Dominion as National Social Hygiene Day, and was dedicated to a campaign against the menace of venereal disease among the armed forces war workers, and the civilian population in general. This campaign, it is emphasized, was not confined to Social Hygiene Day only, but will be continued throughout the year.

In a message in this connection issued through one of the great insurance companies, the Hon. Ian MacKenzie, M.A., L.L.B., K.C., Minister of Pensions and National Health, has this to say:

"Fellow Canadians, we are engaged in total all-out war. Victory requires the total effort of all our people. Thomas Carlyle once said: 'The health of body or mind is defeat. Health alone is victory.'"

"Venereal disease is a cause of ill-health and lost time that can be controlled and prevented. In communities where vigorous effort has been put forth, there are concrete statistics to show that positive results have been and can be obtained. Sickness is waste. To win the war we must have strong, robust men in the armed forces, fit and healthy workers in the factory and on the farm. Time out on account of ill-health is a dead loss to our war effort."

"To overcome venereal disease there must be individual effort and community effort. The responsibility of the individual is to live cleanly and to avoid sources of infection. The responsibility of the community can be expressed in the following three ways:

1. Clean up local conditions where disease thrives.

2. Organize educational campaigns to teach our young people the facts about venereal disease, how to avoid it and where to go for treatment.

3. Provide ample facilities for healthy recreation.

The war against venereal disease is a battlefront on which every Canadian community can fight. Join us in this battle for national fitness."

Canada's overseas strength is now increased by a new contingent of the Royal Canadian Air Force Women's Division, whose arrival in Britain has just been announced. Some of the girls will serve at Overseas Headquarters, some at the headquarters of the new R.C.A.F. bomber group, and others will take up duties at various R.C.A.F. stations. Just before they embarked for the Atlantic crossing, a photographer visited the girls and found them busy packing duffel bags and getting acquainted with respirators, steel helmets and other overseas gear.

A DAY WITH THE NAVY

Naturally we could not see all of Canada's efforts without seeing some thing of the Navy, for Canada has an important part in the naval services, even in Great Britain.

Our original programme called for seeing an important ceremony at a naval station where Canadians form a part. However, at the time this was to take place, our party was far from location, and it meant a loss of two days in travelling to go and return. As this represented a lot out of our remaining time, it was decided to take us instead to a naval base nearer at hand.

While we did miss seeing any of the Canadian naval forces, it gave us an opportunity to visit one of the most famous of English bases. With Lieut. Downton as our guide, we set off on September 14th, and travelling over one of the old roads of England finally arrived at our destination.

A Visit to the "Victory"

The first thing we were shown was one of the most famous ships in English history, which is now a national shrine, Nelson's famous flagship the "Victory".

This ship, completed in 1765, took six years to build, and although it is 177 years old, and has probably been visited by millions of people, it looks almost new.

It was from the deck of this ship that Nelson sent out his famous message which has echoed around the world, and still inspires the hearts of Britons everywhere, "England expects that every man will do his duty." It inspired his men to win the greatest naval battle of history, a battle that changed the history of the world. It was British skill and bravery that won that battle of Trafalgar, for the French ships were larger, faster, more numerous, and carried more guns.

Nelson had 27 British ships while the French had 33, and when the battle was over 18 of the enemy ships had been captured, and the rest sunk or scattered. But Nelson himself died a hero's death.

We felt that we were treading hallowed ground as we gazed on the plate on the deck which shows the exact spot where Nelson fell, and the roped off space between decks, where he died with the words "Thank God, I have done my duty." The plate on the deck reads "Here Nelson Fell, 21st Oct. 1805" while a plate amidst records that "Here Nelson Died".

It is interesting to compare the size of the "Victory" with a modern battleship. The Victory is 186 feet long with a beam of 52 feet, and has three gun decks with 100 guns. She could fire a broadside of 52 guns. A modern battleship is more than four times as long.

The Victory was forty years old when it led the fleet in the Battle of Trafalgar. Today a battleship is obsolete in half of that time.

To raise the anchor boys would pull the chain a certain distance and run forward to nip it again, and from this came the expression "Nipper".

A Modern Destroyer

From this visit to the ancient Victory, we were taken over a modern destroyer of the "Hunt" class, a destroyer which actually took part in the Dieppe raid, which gave us a vivid picture of the exacting requirements of modern warfare, and the contrast in ships.

Among the ships that happened to be in port, so that we had an opportunity of seeing them, were the Royal Yacht, which is now a destroyer, and the Sultan, a 100 year old ship now used as a training ship for engineers.

While travelling around the harbour in a launch, we met an interesting sailor. This man, a Canadian, and his son were brought back wounded from Dieppe, and the son died from his injuries. The father has adopted another sailor, an orphan who looked after his son when wounded.

After a splendid lunch in the Officers' Mess, we were first given a realistic A.R.P. demonstration in which incendiaries, bombs, gas, and wounded were taken care of. Smoke bombs added realism to the show, and the rescue of wounded from a high tower by ropes was very interesting.

A Sailor's Chapel

Our next call was at the base chapel, the Chapel of St. Ambrose. Dedicated on December 18th, 1935, this chapel has many unusual features including the emblems of many submarines around the walls, among others, that of the "Thetis" which was lost and afterward recovered. It is since given a very good account of itself. All the furniture in the Chapel was presented by friends.

A trip through the submarine base was most enlightening, one specially interesting demonstration was methods of escape from a submarine under water. This we watched through the glass walls of an enormous tank filled with water.

Then a hurried visit was paid to numerous buildings in which naval training, physical training, and drills were going on, and a mess where 1000 men are fed at one time.

The most impressive feature of the afternoon was a review of four thousand trainees with band and everything.

While everyone connected with the enormous base is working most strenuously, they still have time to look after fifty acres of potatoes on the grounds, although we found it difficult to believe that fifty acres could be found for such a purpose.

After being given afternoon tea at the Officers' Mess, we were taken around the nearby city to see the bomb damage. For this trip and the other little motorcade we did while at the base, WRENS were the chauffeurs. There are a large number of WRENS employed at various tasks around the base.

An Ancient Inn

It was a day packed with interesting and instructive sights, and we were sorry to have to start away on our long journey in our bus, to our headquarters. The trip was broken at Liphook, where we visited the Royal Anchor Hotel, which was built in 1416.

The rooms in this hotel are all named after famous people who have stayed in them, and bear such names as Nelson, Samuel Pepys, William Duke of Clarence, the Duchess of Kent, etc. In front of the hotel is a fine old chestnut tree which is reputed to be 800 years old.

Altogether, our day with the Navy brought home to us that Britain's greatness has come from her Navy, and that the spirit of Nelson is still carrying on.

Household Hints

YOU CAN STRETCH THE MEAT QUOTA WITH PUFFY SOUFFLES AND TENDER CROQUETTES

Quota restrictions needn't mean the blacking out of family hospitality. But they will mean that many hostesses must turn strategists and build company menus around savory dishes that make a little meat go a long way. Croquettes for instance, have party glamour and so have souffles; and at the same time they both work wonders in stretching a limited amount of meat. You'll be sure of croquettes that are tender and moist and shapely if you use quick-cooking tapioca as a binder. And, by using quick-cooking tapioca, even a beginner can count on a puffy, light souffle that will hold its shape.

You can stretch one cup of leftover chicken into six servings by converting it into a souffle, and a cup and a half of chicken will make eight croquettes.

Chicken Souffle

5 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 teaspoons chopped onion
1 cup milk
1 cup chicken stock, or 1 cup water and 2 bouillon cubes (chicken flavor)
1 cup finely cut cooked chicken.
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
3 egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon colored
3 egg whites, stiffly beaten

Combine quick-cooking tapioca salt pepper, onion, milk, and stock in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 8 to 10 minutes after water boils again, stirring frequently. Add chicken and parsley. Cool slightly while beating eggs. Add egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites. Turn into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 deg. F.) 50 to 60 minutes, or until souffle is firm. Serve at once with creamed peas or Bechamel sauce or with any favorite sauce. Serves six.

To use left-over turkey, substitute turkey stock and cooked turkey for chicken stock and cooked chicken.

Chicken Croquettes

3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon paprika
2 tablespoons minced green pepper
2 tablespoons minced pimiento
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup chicken stock
1 1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken
Sifted bread or cracker crumbs
1 egg, beaten with 3 tablespoons milk and a dash of salt

Combine quick-cooking tapioca salt paprika, green pepper, pimiento, milk, and stock in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and cook 8 to 10 minutes after water boils again, stirring frequently. Add chicken and mix thoroughly. Chill. Shape into cones. Roll in crumbs, dip in egg mixture, then roll again in crumbs. Fry in deep fat (350 deg. F.) 1 minute, or until golden brown. Drain. Serve with cranberry jelly. Makes 8.

Bean Soup

3 slices bacon
2 cups baked or boiled beans
4 cups cold water
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon butter
Salt, pepper, paprika
Cook bacon. Add to beans. Add cold water and cook until beans are soft, then rub through a strainer. Place on the fire and add a little more water, if needed, as the soup must not be too thick. Bind with the flour and butter. Cook two or three minutes. Season with salt, a dash of pepper, and paprika.

New England Pandowdy

2 cups tart apples, pared and cored or other fruit
Sugar
2 tablespoons water
Nutmeg or cinnamon
Baking powder crust
Fill a greased baking dish half full of the fruit, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon or nutmeg, add the water to make a little juice and cover with a baking powder biscuit crust. Bake in a hot oven (400-450 deg. F.) until the crust is thoroughly baked and the fruit tender. If the crust becomes too brown before it is cooked through reduce the heat slightly after the first twenty minutes. A thick crust of this kind is more easily baked if a small opening is left in the middle. With a rolled crust a piece may be cut out with a tiny cookie cutter. If the crust is dropped from the spoon, it may be placed around the edge of the dish so that there is a small opening in the centre.

OATMEAL IN A NEW ROLE

War-time shortages and restrictions bid fair to give oatmeal the place it really deserves in the Canadian diet. This humble cereal is always highly recommended by nutritionists for its valuable content of iron and B vitamins. There is and will be no shortage of oatmeal in this country and it should become a staple food in every Canadian home. It can be used in many ways and should not be thought of solely as a breakfast cereal. Oatmeal porridge every day might not be regarded with favor. Why not try an oatmeal pudding on one of your meatless days? It is delicious, nourishing and has good "staying" qualities.

Here is a recipe that is easy to make. Children and grown-ups both will like it.

Simple Fruit Pudding

1 cup quick-cooking oats
1 cup raisins or currants
2 tbsps. brown sugar or honey
1 cup buttermilk or thick milk
1 tsp. of baking soda
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, cloves and pastry spice
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
To make thick milk (if you can't get buttermilk), put one teaspoonful of vinegar in 1 cup of whole milk and let it sit in a warm place until it sours and thickens.

Method:
1. Dissolve the soda in the sour milk.
2. Mix all the other ingredients together in the top of a double boiler. If you can't get raisins or currants, use peel.
3. Add the milk to the mixture and stir until smooth.
4. Cook over boiling water for one hour. Serve with cream or sauce. This will serve 4 to 6 people.

Must You Borrow To Carry On Your War Work?

Every Canadian citizen has a part to do in winning this "survival" war against the international bandits who are trying to kill freedom and enslave mankind. Your war work is your most important job.

The Bank of Montreal encourages war-time saving, rather than borrowing, but there are cases where a timely bank loan not only saves money for the borrower but helps him to do a better job for VICTORY.

If you find it necessary to borrow money in order to perform your highest duty as a Canadian citizen—whatever that duty may be—please feel free to discuss your financial needs in confidence with the manager of our nearest branch. We have hundreds of branches throughout Canada.

Your RED CROSS CALLS TO YOU
Never has the need been so urgent $10,000,000 NEEDED Now!

YOUR RED CROSS appeals to you for funds to carry on its program of mercy, to continue vital war work performed by no other organization. Never has the need been so urgent.

Helping to keep up the morale of half-a-million fighting men is a gigantic task, and that is only the beginning. The Red Cross makes life more bearable for thousands of prisoners of war. Over 2,000,000 parcels were shipped to them last year—more than this number must go in 1943. Our men in British and Canadian hospitals need Red Cross comforts and heartening visits from the staff of Red Cross "visitors".

Red Cross help to shipwrecked sailors is essential, thoughtful, immediate. Homeless war orphans—our own kin and those of our allies—sick and starving men and women in many lands—millions in Russia, Greece and China and other peoples of the United Nations—need more food, medicine and comforts from the Red Cross.

The need is world-wide; this year the cost will be greater than ever. The work must go on. Obey the dictates of your heart; open wide your purse and be generous. Remember, you are the Red Cross!
